

Report of the cash auditors

The written cash report and the cash books / journal of the association were audited by the auditors elected by the General Assembly.

Documents including individual receipts were checked.

The cash balances at the beginning of the calendar year are in line with those in the cash registers; Amounts of the completely submitted bank statements, bookings and the random comparison with the complete claims/receipts match.

The books are kept in good order, arranged clearly and in chronological order.

No / subsequent complaints were found:
